Passengers arriving in Baltimore by the morning line from Philadelphia, gain nothing by going on immediately by the Bay Line, and may as well remain over in Baltimore nutil 6 a. m., or go on to Washington at 5 p. m., and remain until 9 a. m., the next morning, as they are obliged to lie over in Petersburg, if they arrive there earlier than the Great Mail Line of the next morning, and are subjected to all the uncertainties and discomforts of a night on the Bay, instead of passing an agreeable one in Baltimore or Washington, without arriving any sconer, if as seon, at the end of their journey.

Passengers going to Washington by the train of 10 p.m., are taken, if they desire it, by the Company's Omnibus, at once, without charge, from the Washington depot to the Potomac steamboat, where they lodge, free of charge, and may lay over, (if they desire to do so.) with their through tickets, for a few days, at the following places, viz: Washington, Richmond, Petersburg, and Weldon.

Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old W BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood!" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law. Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," Hough reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," It being in fact a union of the two lieviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.
